AN OLD BETRAYAL: A CHARLES LENOX MYSTERY

Minotaur. 1 Paperback(s), 2013. soft. Book Condition: New. In this seventh book of Charles Finch's wonderfully evocative, Agatha and Nero Award-nominated series in Victorian London (following A Death in the Small Hours), former gentleman investigator Charles Lenox finds his new responsibilities as a Member of Parliament leave him with time enough to help out a former protégé. But when Lenox's cryptic encounter with his friend's client seems to lead, days later, to the murder of a country squire, this "fast favor" draws Lenox inexorably back into his old profession. And this body is only the first step in a cruel plan, years in the plotting, which may strike at the heart of England's monarchy. When his former colleague and protégé, John Dallington, is ill and asks his help in meeting a prospective client in distress, Lenox is happy to oblige. The client is a secretary to Queen Victoria, who's being blackmailed for her less-than-reputable past, and the case turns into one based on long-festered revenge. The seventh in this series proceeds at a leisurely pace suitable to 1875 London, dealing with betrayal in both the case at hand and in parliamentary politics. But Lenox's instincts as a sleuth are keen and his wit is sharp as he handles adversity in an eminently satisfactory fashion. A fine addition to this impressive series." Booklist 294.
