H63 2008k OCLC Number: (OCoLC)526569754 Subject: Judges -- Selection and appointment -- Washington (D. C.). Excerpt: . . . 11 up on what we call an exceptions report. There are about four or five different case tracking reports that I review on a weekly basis so that I can stay abreast of what is ready to be acted upon and what is not. The two calendars I manage involve very heavy filers. I believe I have approximately 2, 100 active cases. So it requires not only a diligent, hard working judge, but also a team of other folks, and I have had the support of both the chief judge of the court as well as the presiding judge of the Civil Division who have provided me with additional bodies to try to work through the backlog and stay current with all matters that are being filed currently. So there are controls in place and there are people available to the calendar to assist me in resulting matters sooner than later. I believe we all, at the court, take our duties seriously and do what-ever we can with the resources that we have to see to it that deci-sions are rendered speedily. Senator V. Thank you. OINOVICH KAKA Senator A. Well, thank you very much, Senator Voinovich. I want to thank our witnesses also very much for your state-ments. There are no further questions from me at this time. Mem-bers of the Committee may submit additional written questions for the record. The hearing record will remain open until the close of business today for Members of this Committee to submit additional...
