A Few Seconds of Radiant Filmstrip: A Memoir of Seventh Grade

By Brockmeier, Kevin

Vintage, 2015. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "Filmstrip is a funny, poignant oddity. . . . There's something here for you as long as you remember being 12, having disloyal friends, and wondering when the opposite sex was going to discover how cool you were. . . . The prose is always a pleasure, and our little underdog hero is so likable that you're relieved just to be holding the book in your hands: It's proof that he turned out okay. A-" -- Entertainment Weekly

"Brockmeier's evocative, gracefully written memoir so beautifully captures a slice of our lives many may be tempted to write about, but few want to remember. . . . Brockmeier also does an excellent job anchoring his memoir in time without limiting its appeal only to those who came of age in that decade. In his fiction, Brockmeier has shown he's a versatile prose stylist, and he makes the transition to memoir without sacrificing that quality. . . . Lovely." -- Bookreporter

"Masterful. . . . This is painful stuff--and important and beautifully written stuff, in Brockmeier's hands--worthy of your time and attention. It's insightful, relayed...

Totally one of the better pdf I have at any time read through. It really is simplified but shocks within the 50 % from the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
