Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Annual Report of the Trustees of the Boston Psychopathic Hospital: For the Year Ending November 30, 1924 Finally, to Dr. Kline, Commissioner of the Department of Mental Diseases, as well as to Dr. Campbell and his colleagues, we would voice our feeling of gratitude that the Boston Psychopathic Hospital functions so smoothly and maintains its previous high standards. To the Board of Trustees of the Boston Psychopathic Hospital. In accordance with the provision of the statutes I submit for your consideration the report for the statistical year ending September 30, 1924, and for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1924. In recent annual reports an outline has been given of the special organization of the hospital, of the nature of the work carried out in the various departments, of the co-ordination of these departments for the efficient study and treatment of patients and so that research into the fundamental problems of mental disorders should be continuously carried on. During the past year a constant effort has been made to maintain the efficiency of this organization, and the work in the various departments has progressed in a satisfactory way. In the appended reports from the various departments will be found a more detailed statement of the problems which have been studied and of the contributions of the staff to the solution of these problems. The laboratories continue to be occupied with certain definite detailed problems, which form part of a wide program of research. Continuity in this work is very desirable and it is fortunate that there has been no change in the chiefs of the various departments. Limitation of funds has prevented research from being...
