In the finale of the Golden Rule Outfitters series, small town business mogul Tommy Golden faces the biggest fight of his life. A corporate giant is threatening to commercialize the area's quiet ski lift and change the fabric of the valley he calls home. When he discovers the woman sent to plead Holcomb Industries' case is the woman who ripped his heart out a decade before, his passion to fight the development becomes a personal quest for revenge. Gretchen Lowry knows her first and only love Tommy Golden lives in the valley where she's been sent to negotiate with a group fighting her employer, but she doesn't know he's in charge of the resistance. If there's one thing Gretchen understands it's that she can't change the past, but dealing with Tommy in the present is anything but pleasant. He's still furious at her for walking out on him, but she can't explain her reasons for leaving now any more than she could years before. The best thing she can do, the safest thing is to broker a deal and get out of town fast. But fate has other plans. When Tommy and Gretchen are stranded on a snowy mountaintop, the last thing on their minds is a deal. The gloves come off and the rules get tossed out the window. Because in the game of love, there are no rules. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
