Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Bolivia and the Opening of the Panama Canal Railroad developments which were undertaken in Bolivia several years ago will be completed about the same time as the Panama Canal, or perhaps a little earlier. These developments will add to the effect of the work your government is doing. At present the Pacific coast trade must enter Bolivia either by way of Mollendo, in Peru, or Antofagasta, in Chili. Under an agreement with the government of Chili a new railway is being built from Arica, on the coast of Chili, to La Paz, in Bolivia, which will cut down the time of the journey at to at least a third and will bring La Paz within eight or ten hours of the coast. It is a particularly good omen that these two big undertakings should be completed at about the same time. At present merchandise going by the Panama route and by Mollendo suffers a very great deal in transshipment. It has to be transshipped at Colon, then again at Panama, and several times again after...
